VICTORY! GEO. B. SLOAT & CO.'S ELIPTIC SEWING MACHINE

TRIUMPHANT! THESE Machines have been on exhibition at the Louisville Mechanics' Fair for the past six weeks, contending with Wheeler & Wilson's celebrated Machine, and many others, for the prize. After thorough examination by competent judges, the premium was awarded to Sloat's Machine, and now we notice the acknowledgement of the defeated party to the justice of the award, by the sudden and material reduction in the price of the defeated Machine.

Sloat's Machines have been introduced in Kentucky since July last; since which time they have rapidly gained in public favor; and such is now the demand for them, in consequence of their superiority and low price, that the manufacturers at Philadelphia are turning out 200 per week, and the de-delphia are turning out 200 per week, and the demand not fully met.

There is no other Sewing Machine now before the public that will carry the heavy, or the light thread, perform equally well on the thickest and heavest, or lightest fabric, and which has entire freedom from that painful and never-to-be-forgotten tr.uble, called the pad. It is very simple and strong in its construction, offered at the low price of $60, and warranted to perform perfectly for 3 years.

Reference given to all persons using Wheeler & Wilson's Machines, if not prejudiced. It will give me great pleasure to show these Machines to all persons desirous to purchase or examine a Sewing achine, that will not vex and trouble them in its performance.

|For the Yeoman Land Register-Thos. J. Frazier.

RICHMOMD, Ky., Nov. 22, 1858. Messrs. Editors: Among the many names spoken of in connection with the office of Register of Lands is that of Judge Thos. J. Frazier, of Madison. Judge F. is so well-known in this portion of the State, that did your paper circulate n no other section, it would be a work of supererogation to write you in regard to his qualifications and services. But circulating, as you do, in every county of our Commonwealth, it may be necessary to say a few words in his favor.

That Judge Frazier is well qualified to fill the station to which he aspires is well-known throughout this district, and I am confident that should he be the nominee, he will discharge the duties of the office to the satisfaction of his constituents and with credit to himself.

That Judge Frazier is one of the most popular men in this district no one can gainsay. In 1843 he was elected to the State Legislature, receiving every vote in the county of Breathitt, with debted to the goodness and mercy of God, and the exception of fifteen; in 1852 he was elected it is meet that as a people we should bow becounty Judge of Breathitt, and so great was his fore His throne with hearts full of thankfulopularity, that no one could be found to oppose im; and in 1855 the candidacy of the office for which his friends are now putting his name forward was given to him by the State Convention, against his wishes. But true to his party, he accepted the nomination, although certain defeat could alone be expected, and early in the spring commenced the canvass of the district. Wherever he went immense gains for the Democracy occurred; and at the election, this the Sixth) district, which had invariably given from two to three housand majority against our State ticket, went for the Democracy by twelve hundred votes-Judge Frazier leading the entire ticket.

In addition to Judge Frazier's numerous qualifications for the office, this end of the State, striking a line from Fleming across to Wayne county, omprising fully one-third of the area of the State -has never had a State officer taken from within ts limits. This section gives a strong Democrat- says. majority, and is pre-eminently entitled to be epresented upon the State ticket; and I know of o one who would give so great an impetus to he Democracy of the mountains as Judge Frazier. Ie is the first choice of nine-tenths of the voters our party in the Sixth and Ninth districts, and he second choice of the balance.

In conclusion, let me say, the Sixth district rash deed he had done without a license. ves the second largest Democratic majority in e State-the largest being given by the First; nd we think that we are entitled to be repreented upon the State ticket; and Judge Frazier, live him to us as one of our standard bearers, nd such a majority will be rolled up in this disciet that the gallant old First will have to look ) her laurels.

January next, Col. William Ellis was called to the chair, and T. M. Dickey appointed secretary. On motion of Col. James P. Bates, Col. B. S. Smith, Capt. Robt. Strange, and W. W. Bush, were appointed a committee to draft resolutions suitable for the occasion, when the following resolutions were reported and unanimously adopted, Resolved, That we indorse the administration of James Buchanan, and believe him to have been actuated by pure, patriotic, and unselfish motives in the management of the affairs of the nation.

Resolved. That we cheerfully approve the action of the Democratic Executive Committee in changing the time of holding the Democratic State Convention to the 8th of January, and that we regard this as the most appropriate and suitable time for holding the same.

Resolved. That we recovery

Resolved, That we recommend to said Convention George T, Wood, Esq., of Hart county, as a gentle-manevery was qualified for the office of Governor of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, That in view of the long experience of Maj. John S. Barlow, of Barren, in deliberative bodies, and his unwavering devotion to Democratic principles, it is our opinion that he highly deserves the nomination for Lieut, Governor, and we cordially recommend him to the Convention for nomination for this position.

recommend him to the Convention for nomination for this position.

Revolved, That we recommend our fellow-citizen, Col. James P. Bates, to the favorable consideration of said Convention, as a suitable candidate for the office of President of the Board of Internal Improvements, for his uncompromising adhesion to Democratic principles, and his eminent qualifications for the office.

Revolved. That we re-affirm and re-adopt the eratic principles, and his eminent qualifications for the office.

Resolved. That we re-affirm and re-adopt the principles embodied in the Cincinnati platform.

Resolved. That the following named Democrats be appointed as delegates to said Convention, to-wit:

Joseph H. Lewis, Wm. M. Wilson, Col. Isaac Smith,

T. M. Dickey, W. W. Bush, Col. B. S. Smith, Major John S. Barlow, J. R. Barrick, Dr. W. S. C. White,

M. H. Maupin, S. S. Farris, N. A. Smith, Col. James P. Bates, Col. John R. Harris, J. S. Jordan, J. H. Holman, James Cummins, William Wood, Jr., Dr. E. R. Williams, R. C. Bullington, A. B. Trigg, James Scott, Robert Strange, and all other Democrats who may wish to attend said Convention.

George T. Wood, Esq., of Hart county, being present, took the stand, and expressed his warmest thanks and gratitude for the manifestation of partiality exhibited toward him, by preferring his name for the office of Governor of the Commonwealth: and said that although numerous friends from various parts of the State had urged bim to permit his name to be presented to the Convention in connection with this position, he had refused to do so, and now refused for reasons that he deemed good ones. He said: A number of gentlemen have been spoken of in connection with this office, any of whom are well qualified The effect of presenting too many names to the Convention might be embarrassing, and might tend to generate division; and it would exhibit a spirit akin to what our Know-Nothing friends call a "wild hunt atter office." I approve of the resolution indorsing the administration. I am opposed to any division of the Democratic party on the Lecompton issue. I think, on this issue, that Mr. Douglas is wrong, and the administration right; but I am opposed to excommunicating the little giant of Illinois, for this or e sin, if he remains true to the Democratic party, as I have no doubt he will always. The Democratic party might survive, if Douglas and Buchanan both left it, or either; but I have no doubt it can and will survive more successfully with both of them in it. I prefer this.

Mr. Wood then made an able and sensible speech on the prospects of the Democratic party, and the condition of politics in the United States; and was greeted with prolonged cheers as he retired from the stand.

Joseph H. Lewis then being called, took the stand and made an eloquent, sensible speech, to which the audience manifested their assent by frequent cheering and other manifestations of On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

It was the unties which then deluged Japan with blood, and we have now more rival societies (denominations) than then; and I much doubt if feeling is not equally as bitter. The Japanese are like all liberal, and sincere, and humble Christians, in one respect, at any r te. They cannot understand how people can worship the same God, or God who says "Love thy neighbor as thyself," and yet who can fight over a convert, and abuse each other behind each other's backs. How, then, is gether. Japan to be converted? The answer is simple enough-by example. Let our citizens settle in and about the ports that have been, and will be, opened to us. Let some of them be latent missionaries, if you will, but nothing active but strict morality and kindness of bearing. Thus will their love and esteem be won; for they are a people who appreciate the most trivial act of kindness. When our cuizens muster in sufficient number at any one place, let them build a small church, just as they would at home. When one church will not contain them, build a ond, a third, a fourth; and I will venture to predict that the Government will build their churches for them, rather than throw any obstacles in their way. Thus may a part of Japan be converted, while the other part must unavoidfollow in the wake of commerce. Now, take another view of this subject. Suppose that the next year a dozen or more sincere but rival missionaries burst suddenly into Japan, and begin to proclaim as many different creeds. One says there are three Gods in one; you must to this and you must not do that, if you expect to be aved. Another, there is but one God, and all nen are destined by his mercy to be saved. One -it is self-evident. Those honest and simpleninded, and sensible people would say: "We had better stick to our Gods of stone, for these oreigners all seem to think differently." on merce, therefore, open the read for the misionary, as it has already opened it for the sailor tary honors. -commerce, assisted by the example of those who settle among them, and share occasionally their simple hospitality.

Thanksgiving Day Scene in New York --Heartless Hoax.

On Thursday, the 18th, (Thanksgiving Day,) jundreds of the poor of New York were made he dupes of some reckless, unfeeling wretch, which he forged the names of several respectble citizens, announcing that on that day 6,000 bounds of bread and 1,200 pounds of beef would be distributed to the poor at Union square. The Tribune, after stating that the notice was a cruel hoax, says:

Before nine A. M. the poor folk began to assemble in the square, and at ten o'clock we were inormed that there could not have been less than 4,000 persons present. When we arrived many hungry and heart-sick people had gone away. ng those that we saw were many men. evi dently mechanics out of employment, whom winter had found wholly unprepared in clothes or purse. The women, and they were by far the most numerous, wore on their care-full, sad faces, untold tales of suffering and privation; and the little children, whose cotton rags scarce served to cover their nakedness, were terrible to look upon-they seemed to lose their youthfulness and shriv-el up into little old men and women before the sharp November frost. So far as we could learn from conversing with these people, they had come from far and nearsome of them several miles-and many had not eaten during the day. One poor American wo-man who sat on the bench in the Park, with two sweet little chi'dren nestling under her scanty shawl, told us she had walked from near Grandstreet ferry, and that she and her little ones had not tasted food since the day before. She was a widow, decently but scantily dressed, and told us, with tears in her eyes, that she found it a hard task to keep the wolf from her door. One of her children was a bright fair-haired little boy of six years, the other a girl of four. We told the poor voman that she need not wait any longer, the notice in the newspaper was a hoax. As she turned to go home she said, "Pity the man that could do so heartless a thing!" There were many such groups in that assemblage.

We left the square about one o'clock; several half-tipsy men were then amusing themselves by scattering small change among the crowd and watching the frantic eagerness with which the famished wretches scrambled for the coin.

The news which came in from Genoa, which reported that these troops were or dered to remain in Carson Valley, proves to be ncorrect. An acquaintance of ours-Brown-sleeps in the third story of one of our hotels. On Sunday night, contrary to his usual abstemious habits, Brown concluded to indulge himself in the luxury of a hot whisky punch. The liquor had the effect to set his spirits in a glow. Brown argued with himself, arithmetically, if one whisky punch will make a man feel good, what will two whisky punches do? He took another punch. It was now bed time, and Brown, becoming slightly topheavy, started towards his dormitory. stated, he roomed in the third story. Being a little heavier on this occasion than usual, Brown of course experienced more difficulty in getting up stairs. Owing to this fact he thought he had at tained a greater altitude than he really had. The onsequence was, in the first place, that Brown, in all innocence, entered the room immediatel elow his own, in the second story. This room belonged to a lady and gentleman, but was unoccu-pied at the time of Brown's entrance. The room was very like his own, and Brown, not being in-timately acquainted with himself, proceeded to divest himself of his habiliments and got into bed. Just as he had fallen into a sort of dreamy, drunken wakefulness, he felt a soft hand wandering over his face and pressing his temple in a very affectionate manner. He leaped with sudden bound into the middle of the floor, and the lady, for such it was, screamed and ran down Meeting her husband, who had just come in, the lady informed him of what she had discov ered and how she had very nearly made a terrible mistake. The husband went up to his room, ac companied by a couple of servants, and found the door locked. In answer to repeated thumpings on the door Brown answered in great indignation, that rather than be interrupted in that way he would leave the house, and accordingly comenced to harness up. Meantime the true state of things flashed across his befuddled intellect; as ne opened the door he stood out in bold relief to the husband and servants, looking the picture of shame and confusion. Being a proverbially polite man, Brown stood humbly passing his hands over each other, as he related how the mistake ocurred, seemingly

STOMACH OR LIVER.

SUCH as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach.Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous and Kheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances preved highly beneficial and in others affected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Borhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction in the U.S. was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful arcmatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION.

The great popularity of this celebrated Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything until you have given Beerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT

THIS incomparable Liniment, upon which the great mass of the afflicted of all lands now rely for relief from the pangs of Rheumatism, Neuralgea, Gout, Erysipelas, Cancer, Scrofula, Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, and all cutaneous diseases, is rapidly superseding all similar preparations. The proprietors give for the encouragement of sufferers the following memorandum of a few of the wonderful cures effected by it during the past few months. Certificates from the parties named are in the possession of the proprietors, but their length precludes the publication of all but a few.

Webster City, lowa, Nov. 9, 1857.

Dr. A. G. Bragg—Dear Sir: For more than three years I had been afflicted with inflamed eyes in an aggravated degree, and tried various Physicians, and several nostrums, to no effect; I was induced by Dr. Baum to try the Arctic Liniment, and in two months was nearly well. My little daughter was afflicted in the same manner for the same time, and during a portion of the time was entirely blind in one eye. I applied your valuable Liniment, and her eyes are now perfectly sound. Thus have I, with one two-bit bottle, cured my daughter's eyes and my own, besides juring the Rheumatism in my back. I would not be without your valuable remedy in my house.

From Dr. James M. Jarrett, of the New York Lung Infirmary.

My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passags. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management or those fearful and often fatal diseases, set I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public. I would respectfully announce, in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and tinat the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., &c., will be From Dr. James M. Jarrett, of the New York Lung Infirmary.
